

In the mountain gorges Faust's Ascension

In the previously published series "Faust's Entombment", the heavenly hosts triumphed over Mephisto's devilish accomplices and saved Faust's soul from the Hellmouth. Now the angels have raptured his immortal into a mythical landscape and carry it up to heaven. Mephisto rages because he has been given a great single treasure was cleverly was shrewdly snatched away from him.

Among the penitents who witness the scene is, in addition to the great sinner Mary Magdalene, Gretchen, who repents of her infanticide and will follow her lover Faust. We see here the very last act of the Faust epic by Johann Wolfgang von Goethe.

www.bellazinnfigur.de

01 Mary Magdalene and two other penitents, 02 rock, 03 Mephistopheles angry, 04 Group of angels with Faust's soul floating towards heaven.

The set, packed in a high quality cardboard box, includes four unpainted tin figures in 30 mm size, a beautiful postcard as a painting template and an informative 4-page booklet with many illustrations. Illustrations by Sascha Lunyakov, engravings by Regina Sonntag.

To order by e-mail at dieter@beller.info or in the shop at www.bellazinnfigur.de