Die Mummenschanz (1)

Figures introduction

Faust II Akt 1

Although the empire is on the brink of bankruptcy, a lavish masked ball is taking place at the Imperial Palace. It is known as the 'Mummenschanz'. We see Faust dressed as Plutus, the god of wealth, and the Emperor as Great Pan.

The set, packaged in a high-quality cardboard box, includes 10 unpainted 30 mm tin figures, 3 beautiful postcards to use as painting templates, and an informative 8-page booklet featuring numerous illustrations. Illustrations by Sascha Lunyakov, engravings by Martin Andrä. To order, please email dieter@beller.info or visit the shop at www.bellazinnfigur.de
